"Back to the Wild" presented by the Dercum Center

Revisit the journey that has touched millions. The Dercum Center is honored to welcome Walt and Billie McCandless, parents of Chris McCandless, whose life --and death-- has touched the hearts of many thanks to Jon Krakauer's moving account, Into the Wild, and the major motion picture of the same name. This one-night only event will include a visual presentation, a Q & A with Chris' parents and a book signing of the new book and DVD, Back to the Wild, which will be available for purchase. Tickets are $15/adults and $10/18 and under; 7:00pm.

For more information visit www.warrenstation.com or call Karina Wetherbee at 970-513-6556; email: chaskarwetherbee@mac.com.

A Christmas Carol with the Dercum Center

The beloved holiday classic, "A Christmas Carol", will be performed by Denver Star actor Erik Tieze. Short of hearing Dickens himself during one of his public readings, one can't imagine a better expression of it than that delivered by Mr. Tieze during his one-man performance. Erik inhabits the prose and the characters with such a lively spirit that, once heard, it will forever influence the way you read the story. Accompanying the reading will be live music, performed by Chas Wetherbee and Janet Harriman. The music will not only embellish the mood of the story, but will include well-known Christmas Carols and melodies appropriate to the era. This is a not to be missed holiday event sure to become one of Summit County's Holiday traditions. $15 per person, you can buy tickets at the door. Check out www.warrenstation.com for more details.
